The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bostick in view of Kushida.

Bostick and Kushida applying as per the rejection of claim 1 in the previous office action.

Claims 2-4 and 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bostick as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Melchoic.

Melchoic applies as per the rejection of Claims 2-3 in the previous office action.

Applicant's arguments filed October 25, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. In particular applicant's entire argument is that Kushida operates to open the bypass at the wrong time. This is true, however Kushida has merely been applied to teach the structure of the bypass and relief valve and not the time the relief valve opens. Bostick has been used as the primary reference because it teaches the idea of opening a relief to drain the fuel line when the engine is stopped. It would have been obvious to use the structure of Kushida to achieve this result because both systems were return-type fuel rail systems using pressure regulators at the end of the fuel rails.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
